

Human Rights for persons with disabilities

We calling on relevant bodies such as Kenya National Commission on Human Rights, National Gender Equality Commission, National Council for Persons with Disabilities, Faith Based Organization and Civil Society Organization among other to investigate and provide redress for human rights violations, research and monitor the compliance of human rights norms and standards.

Barriers Eliminate

There is need for more comprehensive approach to ensure various barriers and challenges faced by persons with disabilities are addressed.

Monitoring

We need to continuously monitor the compliance in issues of disability in accordance with the legislation and laws of the country.

REVIEW LEGISLATION

We are calling for the review of proposed legislation to ensure conformity and compliance to human rights principles and standards on disability as prescribed by the Constitution.

... Human Rights

The rights of persons with disabilities are grounded in a human rights framework based on the United Nations Charter, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, international covenants on human rights and related human rights instruments.

No Discrimination

“Persons with disabilities face discrimination and barriers that restrict them from participating in society on an equal basis with others every day.”

... Observance of Rights

Persons with disabilities are entitled to exercise their civil, political, social, economic and cultural rights on an equal basis with others under all the international treaties.

Employment Rights

Rights for persons with disability are inalienable human rights. The five percent quarter on employment in both public and private sector is a right for persons with disabilities..

